GUEST PRESENTATION

1.) Joseph Mims, HIV/AIDS Program Admin, Florida Department of Health - Duval

Ending the Epidemic

- Joseph Mims gave HIV/AIDS statistics in the local area (Area 4).
- The presenter noted that there has been a decrease in new AIDS diagnosis in the area (primarily due to an increase in treatment and medication).
- HIV transmission is 75% male and 25% female.
- The black community is the most heavily impacted by HIV (they are disproportionately affected by the virus)
- The highest age bracket being diagnosed with HIV is the 20-29 age range.
- There is a new campaign with the goal of ending the epidemic in the next 10 years.
- The goal is to reduce the transmission by 75% in 5 years and 90% in 9 years.
- To obtain this goal, the plan is to diagnosis, treat, protect, respond, and establish an HIV Health Force.
- The presenter stated that because Duval is identified as one of the counties with the heaviest diagnosis of HIV, the push for rapid treatment and protection is imperative
- In the protection category, the Department of Health (DOH) and the community partners are educating the public about the pre and post exposure drugs now available
- DOH has a rapid test available. An individual can get tested, see a doctor, and get medication within 72 hours.
- The presenter noted that they are working to reduce the stigma of getting tested.
- The presenter encouraged all refugees to get tested and to continue to get tested as they assimilate into their new environments.
- Currently all refugees are tested as a part of their health assessment at DOH

2.) TaWanda Washington, Assistant Director of Nursing, Florida Department of Health - Duval

Hepatitis A Virus and How it Affects the Refugee Population

- The presenter stated that the Hepatitis A vaccine is offered to everyone.
- The outbreak of Hepatitis A is nationwide. Last year, Florida declared a public health emergency

- The presenter stated that last year Duval County had 75 new cases
- The primary groups to transmit the disease are drug users, man to man transmission, the homeless, and incarcerated individuals. White males lead in transmission.
- The presenter stated that the primary reason the crisis has not abated is the fact that people do not always seek testing or services (this is true for drug users and non-drug users).
- DOH is currently targeting zip codes that have been hotspots for the disease.
- Besides testing and vaccine, the main way to prevent transmission is to wash hands with soap and water.
- There is a two-dose vaccine. Refugees currently receive the vaccine during their Health Assessment at the Refugee Clinic.
- The presenter stated that everyone (including refugees) need educated on the importance of practicing precautions and getting proper preventative care.
- The presenter spoke briefly on the importance of washing one's hands to prevent the spread of Coronavirus. She also gave some other pointers on preventing the spread of the disease.
