This task force has been active in the Broward County in the past few years. The participants are representatives of various government agencies, private not-for-profit organizations and volunteer groups. An average of about twenty to twenty-five attend these meetings on a regular basis. The purpose of these meetings is to increase awareness of the refugee populations, share best practices, build collaborations between agencies, spot trends in refugee populations, characteristics or movements, help create good communication among service providers; get informed about upcoming community events, request for proposals, training, workshops, conferences, etc., at the local, state and national level; discuss refugee program service needs and possible solutions to meeting those needs. Meeting participants also receive updates, information and clarification on new federal and state regulations and policy changes pertaining to refugees.

If there are any issues that you would like to include in the agenda, please contact me at the above address.

I look forward to seeing you at the meeting!

RS Eligibility Training-

Miriam Rosario stated we are assessing Refugee Services Eligibility training needs in the Palm Beach & Broward. If you have an estimated number of staff that is in need of RS Eligibility training, please we need the staff names, title and contact information including their emails. The RS Eligibility Training is an advance training and is required to be take an online training prior to enrolling in the classroom training. This is offered to new RS contracted providers, DOH and DCF staff and as a refresher training.

GENERAL UPDATES/ANNOUNCEMENTS

USCIS- Berta Cassidy with USCIS indicated reminder of USCIS new fees took effect 12/2016 and published updated versions of forms. Starting Feb. 21, 2017, USCIS will only accept new editions of these forms. See complete list of the new fees at uscis.gov/forms/our-fees and make sure you are including the correct amount. You must include the new fee or USCIS will reject and return your filing. The updated forms are currently available at uscis.gov/forms, where all of our forms can be downloaded for free. She also discussed starting February 16, 2017, USCIS began reissuing receipt notices (Form I-797) to individuals who applied to renew their Employment Authorization Document (EAD) between July 21, 2016 and January 16, 2017, and whose applications remain pending in certain categories. USCIS is automatically extending the validity of certain EADs issued under Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for El Salvador for an additional 6 months.

The Executive Orders on Immigration and Refugees and policy changes in immigration and their effect in the refugee and immigration community was discussed. Members indicated some have opted out of reaching for assistance in fear these may jeopardize their benefits for Lawful Permanent Residence and/or US Citizenship. CWS offered to members to participate during one of their community Radio Talk Show and present to the Haitian community on this topic. Most participants were aware of these orders and changes as they were highlighted on newscasts in other media. Members discussed the effect of the Executive Orders on the local Refugee programs. Miriam Rosario reported on a previous meeting among statewide RS staff and Employment providers. Employment providers and RS staff would work together to reestablish contract goals and tasks. These updates primarily focus will be on more intense efforts to establish stronger and more promising job opportunities for refugees to gain a stronger sense of self sufficiency. All regions in Florida would be engaging in this effort.

DCF/ESS- Wilber Rodney stated on the importance to inform DCF on any action on these specific cases and to report any change on line as soon as possible. Briefly informed on the ABAB, SNAP and Medicaid clients requirements for Career Source or RS employment participation.

Career Source (CSB) -Keisha Hall Program Manager briefly provided an overview on their Entrepreneur, TANF and Summer Youth programs. She invited members to their Career Source Fair coming up next 3/23/17.

RS Contracted Providers:

Employment Services: Gladys Sanchez, supervisor Youth Co-Op, Inc. (YCI) reported on their intakes still high numbers but not as previous quarters. They have experience increases in the Haitian community intake and they demonstrate highly desires to join the work forces. Their Youth Pathway Program (YPP) has commenced and now have 8 cases. She exulted the members to refer the youth over 16 -19 years old to their YCI for Career or Academic assessment.

Adult Education: Jocelyn Martinez, Project RENEW presented the report and indicated the Adult Education ESOL is stated the schools' commitment to teaching English to the refugees while also making them feel welcome in their new community.

Integration Assistance (IA) & Legal Services: Silvio Padilla, director CWS provided briefly oversight regarding their Legal and IA program. Their IA program have experience an increase in the Haitian community. However, they need to wait for their EAD adding additional stress as new arrivals. He stated they have been working closely with their volunteer and the community outreach thru their Community Outreach Coordinator to help their refugees and clients.

Miriam Rosario took this opportunity to remind participants of the importance to network as a resource for refugees. Miriam reminded on the announced some new initiatives that has been established by the PBC Library System offering opportunities in various resources including cultural school aged children activities and grant research. Many other group of volunteers including Faith Groups and have also been approaching RS program and offering to help and volunteering their skills and talents to tutor refugees including Congolese and Syrian students. RS/DCF is tracking these opportunities and all have been referred to the RS providers and Resettlement Organizations (R&P) in their respective regions.

Ms. Yasmin Saib with the Muslim Women's Organization of South Florida indicated they are a volunteer organization and is helping around 10 families in Miami. She asked for additional social services in the community. RS contracted providers offered and provided brief information on their available services. Sabine with GCJFCS provided the referral form to Ms. Saib to refer these families to the Florida Center for Survivors of Torture, Gulf Coast Jewish Family & Community Services (GCJFCS), Program. Discussion regarding the important to recognize that some of these volunteers may need refugee services awareness and collaboration among these organization's volunteer programs and the RS providers volunteer programs.

Department of Health: Not present but reported on medical assessments for all newly arriving refugees are required; they are still assisting local public health units even while there has been a reduction in these appointments.
