

About the Crisis Center of Tampa Bay

The Crisis Center of Tampa Bay is Tampa Bay's elite provider of crisis and trauma services. Responding to over 183,000 requests for help each year, the nonprofit agency offers a range of evidenced based programs designed to meet community needs:

- Corbett Trauma Center (individual, family and group trauma counseling and research) – Locations in Brandon, Tampa and North Tampa: Call 813/264-9955
 - Funding Sources:
 - Most insurance, including Medicaid
 - Services are available at no charge for uninsured victims of crime, including trafficking, sexual abuse, physical abuse, domestic violence and bullying. A police report is not necessary to receive counseling services.
 - “Gap” funding to cover out of pocket expenses
 - “Last resort” funding for consumers with no other means of payment. (This is limited to available resources and financial need.)
 - Sexual Assault Services – all services are provided at no cost to the client
 - Forensic exams
 - Advocacy
 - Empowerment
 - Prevention services
 - Information and Referral
 - Consultation
 - Family Stabilization
 - Financial education
 - Case management for working families in financial crisis
 - Some financial assistance
 - Strengthening Families (parenting and resiliency)
 - Child and Family Safety - Case management, advocacy, parent/child mentoring and education focused on keeping families intact through risk reduction and reducing barriers to educational success of children.
 - Community Outreach and Training
 - Community Crisis Response
 - Specialized Training – Trauma Informed Care, Psychological First Aid, Mental Health First Aid, Self-Care, Suicide Prevention and Sexual Violence Prevention
 - 2-1-1 Contact Center
 - Suicide prevention
 - Crisis counseling
 - Information and referral services
 - Child Development Screening
 - Veteran's Peer Support
 - Mental Health Peer Support (Warm Line)

For more information regarding The Crisis Center of Tampa Bay, please visit www.crisiscenter.com or call 2-1-1.