Disability or Medical Condition?

- If youth are incapable of doing any of the qualifying activities due to a medical condition and/or disability, there must be documentation of the barrier to participation.
- Child Welfare Professionals must assist the young adult in securing supporting documentation of the condition
 - If the supporting documentation is not already in the child's case file or school or medical records

Supervised Living Arrangement Assessment (SLAA)

- EFC Living Arrangement/Placement Type
 - Evaluating a specific home environment
- Readiness
 - Focuses on conditions of home and young person's ability to safely reside independently
 - Considers functioning and demonstration of life skills
- Supervision
 - Face to face contact in the home monthly is the minimum
- Services and Supports
 - Addresses life skill instruction, counseling, and other needs
- Assessment Decision
 - Approved/Not Approved and justification

SLAA

Consideration/Notation

- Young adults may live in another state.
- The young adult may share housing with others.
- Approving household members may include criminal background checks.
- Prison, jail, detention centers, and other involuntary commitment type programs are not considered supervised independent living settings for Title IV-E reimbursement.

Shared Living Plan

- Household Chores and Daily Living Activities
 - Lists assistance with food preparation, cleaning, shopping, etc.
- Physical and Behavioral Health
 - Lists assistance with scheduling appts, taking medication, self-care, etc.
- Check-In/Curfew and 24-hour Crisis Intervention and Support
 - Addresses household customs and plan for safety and security to include acceptable absences.
 - Lists important and emergency contacts.
- Financial Resources
 - Outline costs associated with living arrangement.
 - Considers financial needs assessments or budget tools used.

Sequence of Events

- When a youth continues into EFC, the Child Welfare Professional will:
 - Complete the Extended Foster Care Agreement form (CS-FSP 5432) with the youth to review and confirm program eligibility.
 - Assess the living arrangement using the Supervised Living Arrangement Assessment (CF-FSP 5431).
 - Complete the Shared Living Plan (CF-FSP 5430) for the approved supervised living arrangement.
 - Evaluate program eligibility
- This process should begin 90 days before the youth's 18th birthday.

Remaining in EFC until 22

- The EFC Program ends when young adults turn 21 unless they have a documented disability. If so, they must be actively participating on their 21st birthday.
- The Child Welfare Professional must discuss with the young adult and any designated decision-making authority within 180 days of the young adult's 20th birthday to see if he/she wants to remain in EFC after turning 21. This is part of transition planning.
- The Child Welfare Professional gives the form My Decision to Leave Extended Foster Care (CF-FSP 5375) to the young adult if he/she requests to be discharged or opt out.
