

Normalcy Resources for Older Youth in Care*

	The State Roundtable’s Transitional Youth Workgroup has been charged with identifying strategies that normalize the foster care experience and allows children and youth to be granted age appropriate freedoms. In addition, the workgroup are working to make a meaningful transition into independent living for youth aging out of the foster care system. The Office of Children and Families in the Courts http://www.ocfcpacourts.us/
	Recently released, the Independent Living (IL) Services Bulletin and its accompanying appendix are good resources to utilize in the discussion for normalcy and developmentally appropriate freedoms for youth in care. Pennsylvania Independent Living Services Bulletin http://www.dhs.state.pa.us/cs/groups/webcontent/documents/bulletin_admin/d_005741.pdf Independent Living Appendix http://www.dhs.state.pa.us/cs/groups/webcontent/documents/bulletin_admin/d_005742.pdf
YOUTH THRIVE 	Youth Thrive is a part of The Center for the Study of Social Policy. “This multi-year initiative examines how foster youth can be supported in ways that advance healthy development and well-being and reduce the impact of negative life experiences.” To learn more about the Center for The Study of Social Policy or about their Youth Thrive Framework you can find their website here: http://www.cssp.org/reform/child-welfare/youth-thrive
 	Youth Fostering Change is a youth workgroup that was developed by Juvenile Law Center to help promote positive changes in the system. Their Teen Success Agreement and Education Resource Guide can be found at: http://www.jlc.org/yfc

*QR codes have been provided for quick reference of materials. You can download QR code reader apps on your smart phones.

 	The Know Your Rights Manual was developed in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Youth Advisory Board and Juvenile Law Center, in an effort to educate youth in the system about their rights. The guide can be found at: http://www.independentlivingpa.org/rights.htm
  Transition Toolkit  Permanency Pact 1	FosterClub's has created a very youth friendly Transition Toolkit that intended to be youth lead. The pages can be written on, and the lessons can be completed in any order. The toolkit can be found at: https://www.fosterclub.com/files/transition_toolkit.pdf Their Permanency Pact can be used during a facilitated discussion that can help youth think through permanent connections in their life. It walks through 40 different activities that can be completed by various permanent connections. The Permanency Pact can be found here: https://www.fosterclub.com/files/PermPact_0.pdf
  Center for Advanced Studies in Child Welfare 	Anu Family Services is one of the Youth Thrive Award recipients. Their work in permanency is progressive. They created the Youth Connections Scale to assist in finding permanent connections for youth in their care. They did this work in conjunction with the Center for Advanced Studies in Child welfare. Their websites are below: https://www.anufs.org/ Center for Advanced Studies in Child Welfare: http://cascw.umn.edu/portfolio-items/ycs/
	The Pennsylvania Youth Advisory Board is made up of current and former youth in care, ages 16-21. Their mission is to educate, advocate, and form partnerships to create a positive change in the substitute care system. www.independentlivingpa.org Facebook Page

*QR codes have been provided for quick reference of materials. You can download QR code reader apps on your smart phones.